

At a Committee of the Court of Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Musicians London held at the Queen's Arms Tavern in Saint Pauls Church Yard on Friday the 19th of March 1773.

Present

M^r Ashton. Master

M^r Stagg. } Wardens

M^r Siddall. }

M^r Jackson

M^r Keating

The Clerk according to the Order of last Court laid before the Committee an Account of Arrears due to the Chamber of London for Apprentices from 19th of October 1754 and fairly copied into the Apprentices book. Also an Account extracted from the Records in the Chamberlains Office from the same Period of such Persons who have been admitted to the Freedom of this Company distinguishing particularly whether made free by Servitude Patrimony or Redemption.

The Committee proceeded to compare the said Account of Freedoms with the Books of the Company and adjourned the further Examination thereof to the 29th Instant. The Juniors to direct the Meeting at four for five o'clock

26th March 1773

Carlos Casar Son in Law of William Welby of Saint Mary Islington Middle Gent Apprentice of Edmund Smith (late Musician) from 26th February 1772 for Seven Years and this Day by Consent of parties turned over to John Gerritt Cordwainer of the same Trade =6=

T Over

N^o 339

N^o 143 Holbourn
going to Jamaica.