

THE LORD MAYOR'S SHOW 2012: THE PROCESSIONAL ROUTE

This is the route – get ready to enjoy the best Show in town! It's just over three miles long, the procession takes 70 minutes to pass by, and it is in two stages – first, the outward journey to the Royal Courts of Justice. There follows a short break for lunch, then the return procession to the Mansion House.

After the Show

There's plenty to do after the parade has passed. Here are ten things to see while you're in the Square Mile. There are more ideas on page 49.

- 1 Free guided walks from 2.45pm
- 2 Bank of England Museum open 11am – 4.30pm
- 3 Guildhall Art Gallery open 10am – 5pm
- 4 The Clockmakers' Museum open 9.30am – 4.45pm
- 5 Dr Johnson's House open 11am – 5pm
- 6 The Tower Bridge Exhibition open 9.30am – last admission 5pm
- 7 The Monument open 9.30am – 5.30pm
- 8 Museum of London open 10am – 6pm
- 9 The Barbican Centre open until 11pm
- 10 Hunterian Museum open 10am – 5pm