

Laurance Arthur Collingwood

Eveline Margaret Thompson

Vera Elaine Wise

We desire also to call special attention to Lionel George Stanton (age 11) who although not qualified to take the Scholarship yet showed remarkable ability for one so young

J. Frederick Bridge

Frank J. Sawyer

E. Markham Lee

Guildhall School of Music

Jan. 14. 1905

The question of the fees to be paid to the Examiners was discussed and the Clerk reported that after giving credit for £23. 10. 0, received for Examination fees and providing for the expenses in connection with the Examination there would be a balance of about 21 Guineas and on the proposition of Mr Southgate seconded by Mr Hoblyn it was unanimously resolved that the Examiners should be paid a fee of £7. 7. 0 a piece

Mr J. Harwood Lescher reported his visit to Mr Andrew Carnegie in New York and informed the Court that Mr Carnegie continued to take a deep interest in the affairs of the Company and the Clerk was directed to write to Mr Carnegie fully as to the results of the Examination

The Silver Gilt Medal which had been voted to Sir Homewood Crawford for his services in connection with the Exhibition was presented to him by the Master as the former was unfortunately unable through indisposition to attend the Dinner following the Court and Sir Homewood

Learn Exhibition

Sir Homewood

Crawford