John Clementi Collard
Master"

Whereupon after discussion Mr. W. S. Collard moved and Mr. Skilbeck seconded that the Report be received, and that it be referred back to the Committee for further action with the following suggestions:-

That Sir Hubert Parry should be one of the Adjudicators in the place of Mr. Otto Goldschmidt. That it should be in the discretion of the Adjudicators to reject all compositions which may be sent in, should they see fit to do so. That all Manuscripts should be sent to the Clerk on or before the 1st of December 1901. That the Copyright of the successful Composition should be the property of the Company, and the decision of the Adjudicators should be announced at the Meeting of the Court in January next, and that an Advertisement should be inserted in The Musical News, Musical Times, The Times and other papers to be eventually decided upon by the sub. Committee, notifying that all Particulars
