

Procedure at the Presentation of the Honorary Freedom to H. R. H. The Duke of Kent.

The Master having taken his place at the Chair, His Royal Highness will stand facing him, the Senior Warden on his right hand and the Junior Warden on his left.

The Master having informed His Royal Highness that by the resolution of 7th May the Company has offered him the Honorary Freedom of the Company for his gracious acceptance, and His Royal Highness having signified his assent

The Senior Past Master will propose that the declaration of a Freeman be administered to His Royal Highness.

The Resolution passed, the Clerk will read the Declaration.

His Royal Highness saying at the end: "This do I solemnly and sincerely declare."

His Royal Highness will then sign the Freeman's Book and the Roll of Honorary Freeman.

The Master will then offer him the right hand of fellowship and hand him the scroll recording the presentation of the Honorary Freedom.

The Members of the Court will then be presented, after which the Master will escort his Royal Highness in to dinner.
