

At a Committee of the Worshipful Company of Musicians held at the London office house Ludgate Hill on Wednesday the 24th day of November 1802.

Present

Mr Smith — Master

Mr Ashley } — Wardens
Mr Ashby }

Mr Wadd — Mr Huson

Mr Croft — Mr Gough

The Committee examined and audited Mr Croft late Master's account of Cash with the Company during his Mastership when it appeared that he had received — — — — £ 248. 13. 10 Paid — — — — " 220. 14. 10 leaving a ballance in his hands of £ 28. 9. —

It appearing that the Beadles several accounts formed part of the vouchers of the late Master Accounts it is ordered that they be entered into the Cash book of the Company in order to be referred to on any future occasion.

The Committee proceeded to examine and audit the late Clerk's accounts when it appeared that he had received — — — — £ 87. 8. 6
and charged against it for fees and other disbursements — — — — £ 33. 4. 8 and salary for 2 years at Quarters. 45. — 78. 14. 8 Ballance £ 9. 3. 10

which Mr Henry Woodthorpe the late Clerk attending paid into the hands of Mr J^r Smith the present Master as per the Cash Book of the Company. Ordered.