was read asking for a subscription towards the erection of a small Theatre to commemorate the Centenary of the Academy. The Clerk reported that he had informed Mr Agnew, who had called upon him, that the Company had no available funds and as it was felt that it would be undignified for the proposition of Past Master Edgar, seconded by the Senior Warden, unanimously resolved, with great regret, that the Company could not assist financially.

It was decided that representatives of the Company should attend the
