

A. J. Bosworth Esq<sup>re</sup>

The Clerk reported that Mr Arthur Ferdinand Bosworth, a son of the late Mr Arthur Edwin Bosworth, proposed to take up his Livery, following his Apprenticeship to P. M. Sir Frederick Bridge, which had expired on the 17th September 1914, and had already paid his fees, and the Clerk was instructed to arrange accordingly, on Mr Bosworth's return to England.

Alfred Allou Esq

The Clerk reported the death of Mr Alfred Allou, a Liveryman of the Company, on the 18th inst., and of Mr Augustus Lewis Boinstingl, another Liveryman of the Company, on the 19th inst.

A. L. Boinstingl Esq<sup>re</sup>

Royal Naval School of Music

The Clerk reported that the Company's Silver Medal had been forwarded to Boind Master 2nd Class Percy Edward Barnacle, the Silver Medalist for 1923 selected by the Superintendent of the Royal Naval School of Music.

Vacancy on Court Victor Allcard Esq<sup>re</sup>

The question of filling the vacancy on the Court caused by the resignation of P. M. Sir William J. Lancaster, was discussed, and the opinion was generally expressed that due rotation by Seniority on the Livery had better be the chief factor, unless there was good reason to the contrary. On the proposition of P. M. Arthur J. Hill, seconded by P. M. de Gaisne, Mr Victor Allcard was unanimously invited to accept the vacant seat.

Fulham Public Library

Kensington Public Library

Letters of thanks were read from the Borough Librarians of the Fulham and Kensington Public Libraries for the presentation copies of the Company's Handbook.

The Oxford and Cambridge Club

At the suggestion of the Clerk, it was resolved to present a copy of the Handbook to the Librarian of the Oxford & Cambridge Club, of which Mr W. A. Peck, who had interested himself so much in the form of the St Cecilia Service, was a Committeeman, as he had expressed a wish to have the Book added to the Club's Library.

W. W. Gobbett Esq<sup>re</sup> Medal for Chamber Music

A letter was read from Mr W. W. Gobbett, a member of the Court, offering
