Mr Wood the Clerk's Account with the Company for the last year, was likewise examined. Whereby it appears that a Balance of $24^{\text{L}} 10^{\text{s}} 11^{\text{d}}$ is due to him from the Company which also being found correct was this day paid to him by the Master.

The Readle's Account for the last year was also presented to this Committee when (after deducting the sum of 10^{L} for Quarterage (as collected by him of the Yeomanry of this Company to October last) - it appears that $4^{\text{L}} 12^{\text{s}} 6^{\text{d}}$ is due to him from the Company; and on the same being approved of was likewise paid to him by the Master this day.

The Book of Stamp duties payable on the admission of Freemen into this Company during the Mastership of J. S. Skilbeck, Esq^r was then examined and compared with the Minute Book: And the Committee find that 11^{L} paid for same is correct as charged in the late Master & Clerk's accounts.
