

A FEAST

to commemorate the grant of a Charter to

The Brotherhood of the King's Minstrels

by King Edward IV on 24th April 1469

given by The Worshipful Company of Musicians

(IN THE PRESENCE OF H.R.H. THE DUCHESS OF GLOUCESTER)

J. B. ILES, ESQ., MASTER

D. J. LOEB, ESQ., SENIOR WARDEN

F. J. H. WRIGHT, ESQ., JUNIOR WARDEN

On the entrance of the Master's Procession a Fanfare will sound

Grace: "Non Nobis, Domine"

Melon

Poached Salmon

Hollandaise Sauce

Croquettes Potatoes

Zeltinger Schwarzwald 1964

Mediaeval Music for Instruments

Roasted Poussin

Peas

Purées Potatoes

Pommard 1964

An Elizabethan Consort Song

Sweet Silver Swan

Canape Diane

Port, Brandy and Liqueurs

Coffee

The Loving Cup

during which will be played a selection from the "Music for His Majesty's Sackbuts and Cornets"

The Loyal Toasts

The National Anthem (Arne version)

The Master

will speak and will propose the Toast of the Guests

The Toast of the Company

Recess

"a short retirement urges sweet return" (Milton)

A Musical Entertainment

by The Jaye Consort and Singers and a Brass ensemble from The Guildhall School of Music and Drama

Closing Grace

"Let us with a gladsome mind For our MUSIC which inspires All things living He doth feed For his mercies aye endure
Praise the Lord for He is kind, Heals and purifies desires: His full hand supplies our need Ever faithfull, ever sure.

Amen"

Recessional

MIDDLE TEMPLE HALL
(By kind permission of the Treasurer and Benchers of the Honourable Society of Middle Temple)

13th MAY 1969