

Beaconsfield, was unanimously elected a member of the Company following apprenticeship.

The Dean of St. Paul's

On the proposition of the Master, seconded by P. M. Sir Home Wood Crooked it was unanimously resolved to offer The Very Revd W. R. Inge D. D. Dean of St. Paul's, the Honorary Freedom of the Company, in recognition of the Company's connection with St. Paul's Cathedral.

Livery

The Master moved that the Livery be invited to dine at Stationers Hall on the 26th April next (the date fixed for the next Court Dinner) and to bring a guest or guests on payment of cost of dinner, and stated that he did this with a view of bringing the Livery together more frequently. This was seconded by P. M. Major Chamber, and carried unanimously, and the Clerk was directed to make the necessary arrangements. It was decided that no ladies should be invited as guests.

Livery Club

P. M. Major Chamber, objected to the President of the Livery Club wearing his badge of office at the Company's service at St. Paul's Cathedral, but this view was not accepted by many members of the Court, and the matter was not pressed.

Company's Box at Guildhall

A letter was read from the Town Clerk, Guildhall, E. C. as to the custody of the Company's box in the Strong Room at the Guildhall and the Clerk was instructed to have the box moved to Stationers Hall.
