

At a Court of Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Musicians on Wednesday the 7th day of October 1851

There being only 9 Members present No Court, could be held, but,

Charity

The Members present recommended it to the Master to pay unto the Widow Harrop, One Guinea as the gift of the Court, which he accordingly did

Also to the Widow Belson, One Guinea, on her producing a testimonial to his satisfaction of her being the Widow of John Belson late a Freeman of this Company deceased.

The Master paid 9 Gentlemen 5^s each

Livery & Steward

Free by servitude

Officers elected