

Their Royal Highnesses will then be conducted upstairs to the entrance to the Great Hall, where they will be received by the Master of the Musicians' Company (William Cordy Herring, Esq.), who will be presented, and will present the Wardens of his Company (Charles Thomas Daniel Crews, Esq., and Edward Ernest Cooper, Esq.), and Mrs. Herring.

Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales will be presented with a Bouquet by Mrs. Herring.

The Master will then present the Chairman of the Exhibition Committee (Sir Homewood Crawford) and Lady Crawford, and Their Royal Highnesses will be asked to accept a copy of the Exhibition Catalogue from Lady Crawford.

Their Royal Highnesses, conducted by the Chairman, will then make an Inspection of the Exhibition, having the special features of it explained to them by Members of the Exhibition Committee at their respective Sections.

With the permission of Their Royal Highnesses, the following will accompany them :—

The Rt. Hon. The Lord Mayor and Mrs. Herring.

The Lady Mayoress and the Master of the Musicians' Company.

The Suite in attendance on Their Royal Highnesses.

Alderman and Sheriff Sir John Knill, Bart., and Lady Crawford.

Mr. Warden Crews and Lady Knill.

Sheriff Sir Alfred Reynolds and Mrs. Crews.

Mr. Warden Cooper and Lady Reynolds.

The Prime Warden of the Fishmongers' Company and Mrs. Cooper.

The Wardens and Clerk of the Fishmongers' Company.

The Clerk of the Musicians' Company and the Honorary Secretaries.

On arrival in the Great Hall a short selection of Shakesperian Music, published in 1599, will be performed under the direction of Sir Frederick Bridge, M.V.O., Mus. Doc., by the Rev. F. W. Galpin, Mrs. Galpin, and others, on the following instruments in actual use in 1604, namely :—

The Treble Viol, the Recorder, the Cittern, the Pandora, the Lute, and the Bass Viol.

Having made the tour of the Exhibition, Their Royal Highnesses will be conducted to the Platform in the Court Dining Room, where they will be briefly addressed by the Chairman of the Exhibition Committee, and His Royal Highness will be asked to declare the Exhibition open.

His Royal Highness having declared the Exhibition open, Their Royal Highnesses will be conducted downstairs to the Court Room, where light refreshments will be served.

N.B.—It is especially enjoined that the General Company retain their seats until their Royal Highnesses have been conducted downstairs; after which the Exhibition will be opened for general inspection and Light Refreshments served subsequently to the departure of Their Royal Highnesses.
