

Freeman of the Company on the 7th October last and on the proposition of P. M. Alderman Sir E. E. Cooper seconded by P. M. Sir Home Wood Crawford a vote of sympathy and condolence with Lady Maude Perry and her family was passed.

The following report from the Principal of the Guildhall School of Music on the Company's Scholars was read:

To

July 16th 1918

The Worshipful Company of Musicians

16 Berners Street, W.

Gentlemen

I have much pleasure in making the following report on the pupils under my direction:

The S. Ernest Palmer Scholar

Henry S. Taylor has made very good progress and is a careful worker.

The Carnegie Scholars

Hedley Nicholas has made most satisfactory progress and is a promising student.

Reginald Purglove has made very good progress and tries hard to work well.

Yours faithfully,

London Ronald

Principal

The Clerk reported that it was arranged to hold the St. Cecilia Celebration at St. Pauls Cathedral on the Eve of St. Cecilia Thursday the 21st November at 3.30 p.m. and was instructed to make the usual arrangements. On the proposition of P. M. Alderman Sir E. E. Cooper seconded by P. M. Webblyn it was resolved to ask the Master of the Parish Clerks Company who was a professional musician and also Colonel Semouville the Commandant of the Royal Military School of Music to take part in the procession "by special invitation."

Company's Scholars
Guildhall School of Music

St. Cecilia celebration