

CITY UNIVERSITY LONDON

113. City University London

Ranked in the top five per cent of universities in the world, City University London has a reputation for academic excellence. It is focussed on business and professions and located in the heart of the capital. Today, students in traditional academic dress pay tribute to the City of London and the Lord Mayor, the University's Chancellor.

114. Dogs Trust

The UK's largest dog-welfare charity cares for over 16,000 abandoned canines every year. It never destroys a healthy dog. Today you'll see the world's biggest nodding dog, plus dog mascots and canine residents from Dogs Trust West London. www.dogstrust.org.uk

115. The Cat's Whiskers

The 2009 Livery Company Masters, known as 'The Cat's Whiskers', are delighted to support Lord Mayor, who was Aldermanic Sheriff in that year. The Cat's Whiskers are also promoting Dick Whittington, a book written by the Lady Mayoress to raise money for the Lord Mayor's Appeal. Thank you also to the CCF Band of the City of London Boys' School, Foulger Transport for the float and C+S Digital for the printing.

116. The Cook & The Butler Event Company

The Cook & The Butler staff are joined this year by the Master of the Worshipful Company of Cooks and members of the Ship's Company of HMS Duncan (which is affiliated with the Cooks Company). Today's participants are celebrating the commencement of Alderman Roger Gifford and Dr Clare Gifford's term of office, and wish them a successful year. www.thecookandthebutler.co.uk

117. 1st Hook Scout & Guide Band

Based in Surbiton, Surrey, the band will be celebrating its 75th anniversary in 2013, along with its Scout Group's 90th anniversary. The highlight of 2012 has been playing on the bandstand at the Olympic Park during the first weekend of the Paralympic Games.

118. ABF The Soldiers' Charity

ABF The Soldiers' Charity, formerly the Army Benevolent Fund founded in 1944, exists to support the men and women who put everything on the line to defend us and our country. The charity gives a lifetime of support to serving and retired soldiers and their families. It is privileged to work with the Lord Mayor to deliver the annual Lord Mayor's Big Curry Lunch.

119. Admiral Scaffolding Group

Back for the second year running, The Admiral Scaffolding Group is strutting its stuff and grooving its thang on the Ultimate Party Bus! The Admiral Structural Gallery has created the perfect place to dance the night away and sing along to some classic disco tunes.

120. Institute of Biomedical Science

The Institute of Biomedical Science is highlighting the role of biomedical scientists in healthcare by bringing its members out of their laboratories and onto London's streets. Members from across the region will mark the Institute's centenary by donning lab coats and joining the parade, raising awareness of the profession's contribution to healthcare in London and across the UK.

121. Worshipful Company of Parish Clerks

The Company received its first Charter in 1442 and can trace its roots back beyond 1274. In medieval times, it performed mystery plays at Clerks' Well (Clerkenwell) and sang services in Guildhall Chapel. Nowadays, members serve churches in the City and beyond in different ways, such as leading worship, music and administration, as well as supporting educational and charitable causes.

122. British Red Cross

The British Red Cross gives skilled and impartial care to people in crisis, in their own homes and in the community, in the UK and around the world, in peace and in conflict. The charity is delighted to be part of this special day for the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress, Patron and Chairman of the charity's City of London Sector. www.redcross.org.uk

CHRIST'S HOSPITAL

A SCHOOL LIKE NO OTHER

123. Christ's Hospital School Band

The band from Christ's Hospital, wearing their distinctive Tudor uniform, is led by Francis Scarr, Band Captain. Founded in 1552 in London, the School was established through the generosity of Sir Richard Dobbs, the Lord Mayor of the day. Now, 460 years on and located in Sussex, Christ's Hospital educates boys and girls, aged 11-18, from all backgrounds providing the majority of its pupils with means-tested financial support. www.christs-hospital.org.uk
