

committee to carry the proposal into effect, so that the presentation might, if possible, be made at the April meeting of the Court.

D. Hugh P. Allen

On the proposition of P. M. Sir Frederick Bridge seconded by W. W. H. D. Leslie Professor Hugh Percy Allen M.A. Mus. Doc. Oxon the new Director of the Royal College of Music was unanimously elected a member of the Company as a prominent professional musician at the reduced fee.

Col. W. Johnson

Galloway

A letter was read from Col. William Johnson Galloway a Liveryman of the Company, again asking that his name might be removed from the list of the Livery, and a letter was also read from P. M. Sir George Wyatt Truscott Bart. addressed to the Lord Mayor stating that he considered Col. Galloway had been badly treated. The matter was discussed and it was decided to accept Col. Galloway's resignation with regret.

City of London

National Guard

The request of Lieut. Col. S. G. Byrne J. D. that the flutes presented by the Company to the National Guard in November 1915 should be transferred to his Battalion of Territorial Guards to be held by them upon the same terms as they were held by the National Guard was acceded to.

Seating at dinners

P. M. Sir Homewood Grosford moved that it be an instruction to the Clerk when seating the members of the Company at any function to give precedence to the members of the Court and to place such members according to seniority. The Clerk stated that this was always done as far as practicable in accordance with a resolution already on the Minutes. He further stated that he had settled the plan of the table for the last Livery Dinner in conjunction with the Deputy Master who was then Master and that the same had been approved by the present Master. The Deputy Master said he accepted all responsibility for the seating and that if a member of the Company brought a very distinguished visitor with him it was only right that such member
