The Clerk reported that Mr J. J. Biggood, B.A., J.P. had asked to be excused from serving as an Assistant, which left two vacancies on the Court. The matter was discussed, and P. M. Hill suggested the advisability of selecting some distinguished member of the Livery, not entitled to election by seniority. The general feeling of the meeting, however, was against departing from the usual plan of election by seniority, and on the proposition of the Master, seconded by Mr W. N. Ash, J.P., Sir George Donaldson was unanimously invited to accept a seat upon the Court.

On the proposition of the Master, seconded by the Senior Warden, Mr William Henry Allen, D.L., J.P. was unanimously invited to accept the second seat, and in default of either or both these gentlemen accepting the position, it was unanimously decided to invite Mr Herbert Sullivan and Mr Walter Willson Cobbett to take the vacant seats.
