Common Hall

The Master reported his attendance at a Meeting held at the Guildhall to consider the acquisition by joint action on the part of the Hall-less Companies of premises to be used as a Common Hall.

It was unanimously resolved that the matter should lie on the table and no further action should be taken

Mr. H. Saxe Wyndham

The Master proposed the issue of a pamphlet to Liverymen relative to the Company's activities

This was agreed to prop to be circulated to the members of the Court

The Company's Records

The Master proposed that the Guildhall Librarian be authorised to take charge of the Company's books at present in the vaults at the Guildhall

The Treasurer opposed this on the ground that the books were already accessible and that in the Guildhall Library they might in course of time be lost to the Company

The Senior Warden remarked that the discussion only emphasised the Company's need of a Hall.

Mr. Waley supported the proposal

Past Master Alcard proposed that the Librarian be asked upon what conditions he would receive the books and whether he would agree
