

Mr Harry Wharton Wells, Mus. Bac., F. R. G. O., Organist of Putney Parish Church, of 17 Stoney Road, Putney, S.W. was unanimously elected a member of the Company, as a professional musician, at the reduced fee.

Guildhall
School of Music

D. M. Hill drew attention to the omission on the part of the Guildhall School of Music to mention the connection of the Musicians Company with the Carnegie and Palmer Scholarships in the announcement published in "The Times" on the 28th June last, and the Clerk was instructed to write to the Secretary of the School, drawing his attention to the fact, and to ask that in future all advertisements and reports in connection with the Company's Scholarships, should be headed "Carnegie (or Palmer) Scholarship of the Worshipful Company of Musicians" -

St Cecilia
Celebration

A communication was read from the Dean of St Paul's assenting to the holding of the usual St Cecilia Celebration at St Paul's Cathedral, and the Clerk was requested to make the necessary arrangements.

List of Company

Mr A. G. Hunter drew attention to the large number of members of the Company who had died during the current year, and at his suggestion, the Clerk was instructed in future to add an Obituary to the List of Members, got out in November.

Septimus
Gross Esq.

Letters were read from Mr Septimus Gross to the Master and the Clerk, resigning his position on the Court on the ground of ill health, and as Mr Gross had stated that his decision was final, his resignation was accepted with great regret.

Vacancy on Court
J. Meade Falkner
Esq. M.A.

It was unanimously resolved to invite Mr J. Meade Falkner M.A. to accept the seat on the Court rendered vacant by Mr Gross's resignation, and if he declined, then to invite Mr Ernest Markham Lee, M.A., Mus. Doc. to accept the position.

Master

The Senior Warden, Mr Ash, stated that he was unable to accept the