

250th anniversary of the Coachmakers' Company, under its present charter, and the Clerk was instructed to circulate the members of the Livery to see if any helping member would undertake to get up a Team.

St. Maryle Bone

A letter was read from the Rector of St. Mary, le Bow, asking for a subscription for the necessary repair of his church, but it was decided that no funds were available.

The Clerk
J. C. Fenwick

Spicers Company

On the proposition of the Master, seconded by the Junior Warden, a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Spicers Company for the use of their Hall for the Beethoven Commemoration Dinner, and the Treasurer was requested to write a cheque for 5 guineas, being a gratuity of 2 guineas for the Steward and 3 guineas for his staff.

Livery of Company

The Clerk stated that he had made enquiry of the City authorities and found that it would be necessary to petition the Court of Aldermen for leave to increase the Livery of the Company, the cost of which would be about £21, but as the members on the Livery had been reduced by death since the last Court, it was decided to let the matter stand over for the present.

Company's Handbook

A letter was read from Mr. Alfred R. Stock, a Liveryman of the Company, suggesting that a copy of the Company's Handbook should be sent for the bookcases of the City Livery Club, and the Clerk was instructed to act accordingly.

Incorporated Society of Musicians

A letter was read from the Secretary of the Incorporated Society of Musicians, asking if a reception to be held on Tuesday, the 3rd January, 1928 by the Society in a City Hall, could be held under the auspices of the Company, and whether the Master would receive the guests, all expenses being defrayed by the Society, who
