

At an especial Court of the Worshipful Company of Musicians held at the George and Vulture Tavern in Cornhill on Wednesday the 5th day of February 1774.

Present

Mr. Wadd Master
 Mr. Moore } Wardens.
 Mr. Weston }

Mr. Hatfield
 Mr. Hardy Treasurer
 Mr. Chivers
 Mr. Ais
 Mr. Humphreys

Mr. Harrop
 Mr. Steele
 Mr. Robinson
 Mr. Gough
 Mr. Huson.

The Minutes of the last Court were read and confirmed.

Mr. Weston affirmed as Renter Warden.

The Charter of Incorporation and the Byelaws made under the same together with the printed regulations proposed by Mr. Hardy were read, and it was referred to the Committee to have a book with the same regulations printed under their Direction.

Mr. Deputy Leeky and Mr. Deputy Bullcock waited upon this Court and requested a subscription in aid of the City's Subscription towards providing extra Cloathing for our brave Troops serving abroad under his Royal Highness the Duke of York; the Consideration thereof adjourned to the next Quarterly Court.

Laid 13) Gent<sup>rs</sup> of the Court 5th / ea<sup>l</sup> £ 3. 5. 0

✓ Edward Thomas Scully Son of Thomas Scully of St. Andrew Holborn Shoemaker was this day bound Apprentice to James Welsh for seven years no Consn.

✓ Appr. no Consn.

✓ Appr. no Consn

✓ Free & Red<sup>n</sup>

✓ Appr. no Consn

✓ Free & Patim<sup>y</sup>

✓ Free & Serv.

✓ Free & Serv.

✓ Free & Patim<sup>y</sup>