

At a Committee of the worshipful Company of Musicians held at the George and Vulture Tavern in Cornhill on Saturday the 14th day of November 1797.

Present

Mr. Steele Master

Mr. Gough Rentwarden

Mr. Hardy

Mr. Ais

Mr. Wadd

The Committee made the necessary Arrangements for the Ceremony of swearing in the Lord Mayor on the eighth of this Month.

On which eighth day of Novem^r. sixteen Gent^r of the Court and Livery in their Gowns with the Clerk robed met in the room of the Court of Requests at Guildhall, from whence they proceeded in Coaches to the Mansion House and breakfasted there.
After which they returned in the Carriages to Guildhall and took the Oath of the Musters while Mr. Ald^r.
Anderson took the Oath as Lord Mayor for the year ensuing. The Ceremony ended the Company returned to the Mansion House and were entertained by the late and present Lord Mayor.