Dear Mr Fenwick

Thank you for your letter conveying the vote of condolence and sympathy passed by the Members of the Court of the Musicians Company, on the great loss I have sustained.

I know my husband always felt it to be a great honour, and privilege to be an Honorary Freeman of this distinguished Company, I am therefore much comforted by their very kind appreciation of him.

Again thanking you

Yours sincerely

E Strong

Dear Sir

Thank you very much indeed for sending me the Order of Service in connection with the St Cecilia Celebration, which took place yesterday at St Pauls Cathedral.

The whole Service must have been most beautiful and impressive, but what touches me so deeply is the reference to my husband.

Music composed by Sir Edward Elgar, rendered in St Pauls Cathedral under the auspices of The Musicians Company in memory of my dear one, fills me with the warmest gratitude to those who arranged and
