

Whether a Chaplain was necessary
 Seconded by Mr. Wilkinson
 The Amendment was accordingly put and carried.

An Address from eight of the Livery was presented by Mr. John Bath begging the Court to convene a Meeting of the Livery to consider if it was proper and expedient for the Company to undertake any movement in relation to the Cause of Musical Science and Art in this Country.

Thereupon Mr. Wood moved

That before deciding whether the Court could comply with the request of the Memorialists they thought it advisable that the Memorialists should formulate more definitely their views and objects in convening such a meeting.
