

endorsed this view but after discussion it was on the proposition of Sir Hornwood Crawford seconded by Sir Frederick Bridge resolved that the Master should attend as the representative of the Company and that failing his availability to attend the Senior Warden should go in his stead

International Conference on Music The Deputy Master explained the circumstances under which it was proposed Sir Alexander Mackenzie an Honorary Freeman of the Company should attend at Vienna in May next to preside at the International Conference on Music and stated that he thought it would be very advisable if Sir Alexander could attend as the representative and at the expense of the Company which he the Deputy Master was willing to defray. Mr Littleton pointed out certain difficulties but said that Sir Alexander could certainly attend the Haydn's Commemoration that was to be held during the Conference as the representative of the Company and after discussion it was resolved

That the Court of the Musicians Company has heard with great satisfaction that Sir Alexander Mackenzie one of its Honorary Freeman is to preside at the International Conference on Music to be held at Vienna in May next and begs to offer him its congratulations on the honorable position conferred upon him and requests him to be good enough to act as the representative of the Company at the forthcoming Haydn commemoration

Kensington and West London Musical Competition and West London Musical Competition Festival A letter was read from the Honorary Secretary of the Kensington and West London Musical Competition and West London Musical Competition Festival asking for support but it was decided that the Company had no funds available for the purpose

New Members Sir Frederick Bridge proposed that Mr Alberto Visetti Professor at the Royal College of Music be elected a Member of the Company seconded by Mr A. G. Hunter and carried unanimously