The Minutes and proceedings of the Court held on 24th January 1928 were read and confirmed.

Sir Edward
Elgar The Senior Warden stated that it had been arranged that he, the Master, the Junior Warden and Sir Hugh Allen should make the presentation of the Cobblett Medal to Sir Edward Elgar of the Savile Club.

The late M^r
Septimus
Croft. The Clerk reported the death of M^r Septimus Croft on the 25th February 1928. Formerly a member of the Court he had been obliged to resign in 1925 owing to ill health. A wreath had been sent in the Company's name and the Clerk read a letter which had been received by the Treasurer from Miss Croft thanking the Company. It was resolved, on the proposal of the Master, seconded by Past Master Edgar that a letter of condolence from the Court, signed by the Master, should be sent to Miss Croft.

Accounts. The Treasurer, Past Master Hill, submitted his report and accounts for
