

th
27 Sept^r 1809

William Cook, son of Robert Cook late of Welling in the parish of Peaseley in the County of Kent Apprentice, Grazier and Salesman deceased, was this day bound to John Oxford Citizen and Musician of London by Indenture for seven years in consideration of 262[£] 10^s

[Decorative flourish consisting of a long horizontal line with several loops and a large vertical flourish extending downwards from the center.]

William Musician
day of Peaseley

Free
of Serv^t } Wille
Wille
Lond
the into Serv^t
also