

great aptitude for composition

I have the honour to remain

Yours faithfully

William H. Cummings

Principal

Catering for The Clerk reported that the London Taverns Company Limited (the Albion) Company's Dinner had closed its doors as from the 30th June last and that subject to the approval Mess^{rs} King & Brymer of the Court Mess^{rs} King & Brymer were prepared to supply the Court Dinners in January and April and the Society Dinner in October at 15/- per head (without Turtle Soup) and the small Court Dinner in July at 10/- per head. The Clerk informed the Court that Mess^{rs} King & Brymer had been appointed caterers to the Stationers Company and on the proposition of the Acting Master, seconded by the Treasurer it was resolved that Mess^{rs} King & Brymer be employed as caterers for the present

Wine Committee The Treasurer suggested the advisability of laying down a further stock of wine and the matter was referred to the Wine Committee

Guild of A letter was read from the Council of the Guild of St. Lukes inviting St Lukes the Company to attend in state the Annual Service of the Guild to be held at St. Pauls Cathedral on the 22nd October at 7.30 p.m. but it was decided not to accept the invitation

Marching Song The Clerk reported that he had received several Songs in reply to the advertisement which had been inserted in the papers by the Committee and Mr Hill said that the whole of the expense was being borne by Mr concerts of Chamber Music Mr Hill stated that Mr W. H. Woltmann a Professional Musician and a Servicemen of the Company wished to give a series of four afternoon concerts
W. H. Ash