

Gift of James I Portrait
New hanging in the Upper Gallery at Whitehall
 The Honorary Treasurer Mr. Past Master Arthur F. Hill F. S. A. formally presented to the Company for its acceptance a framed portrait of King James I which was exhibited to the Court and much admired by the Members present and the Honorary Treasurer was, on the proposition of the Master, cordially thanked for his generous gift.

Professor Edward Dent
 On the proposition of the Master and seconded by the Honorary Treasurer, Mr. Past Master Arthur F. Hill F. S. A. Professor Edward Dent M. A. Mus. Bac. was elected a Member of the Company.

Imitation of certain Liveryment to Court Banquet.
 Mr. Past Master C. de Lafontaine M. A. proposed that the Court should consider the desirability of Members of the Court inviting Members of the Livery as guests to a Court Dinner and after some discussion no formal resolution was proposed but it was arranged that this suggestion, made in order to stimulate the interest of the Livery in the Company, should be left to individual Members of the Court.

Viscount Astor and Reverend Prebendary Perry.
 The Right Honourable Viscount Astor and the Rev. Prebendary G. H. Perry M. A. were formally admitted as Members of the Court of Assistants by the Master.

Mr. Alfred Beit.
 Mr. Alfred Beit having at the previous Court been elected a Member of the Company made his declaration as Freeman and was formally admitted to the Freedom and Livery of the Company.

The following accounts for payment were passed:-

Clerks quarterly honorarium	13 2 6
Clerks disbursements	8 18 11
Beadles quarterly salary	6 11 3