Hornsey.

A further letter from Mr. B. Ellayne, the Lessee of 7 The Avenue Hornsey, was read, stating that he would be prepared to give £250 for the property and the Clerk was instructed to accept his offer provided Mr. Ellayne paid the Vendors' costs of the sale.

11 Albemarle
Gardens

A letter was read from Mr. W. H. W. Galloway enquiring if the Company would be willing to sell the ground rent of £6 per annum secured upon his house, 11 Albemarle Gardens, New Malden. It was decided that, although it was not desired to sell, £200, and the costs of sale would be accepted.

The Heritage Craft
Schools, Chailey,
Sussex

A letter was read from Mrs. G. W. Kimmins, the Founder and Hon. Sec. of the Heritage Craft Schools, Chailey, Sussex enquiring if the Company could assist her financially, or by in some way or other identifying itself with the musical side of her work. The Clerk was instructed to express regret that the Company could not assist.

Court Dinners
Morning Dress

P. M. Major Chamier protested against morning dress being worn at Court Dinners, especially when guests were invited. P. M. Edger supported this view, and after discussion, it was resolved that in the absence of special circumstances, the January and July Court Dinners should be in morning dress without music or guests, and that the April Court Dinner and the Liberty Dinner in October should be in full dress with guests and music.

The following Accounts were passed for payment:
