The Company's

Arms

The following Report of the Committee appointed at the last Court was read

A Meeting of the Committee to consider the question of any alteration of the Arms of the Musicians Company was held at Mess^{rs} Novello's Board Room July 1st 1910

The Master presented an analysis of the condition of the Arms of the 77 City Livery Companies from which it appeared that only 31 have Arms Supporters Helmets and Crests complete

30 have no Helmets

9 no Crests

2 Helmets and no Crests upon them

28 have no Supporters

15 Ornamental Scrolls instead of Supporters

11 have neither Helmets or Supporters

The Arms of the Musicians Company are of this nature

The general opinion of the Committee appeared to be against making any alteration but a definite vote was not taken on this as all the members were not present

It was considered desirable to ascertain whether at the time the Arms were granted in 1604 it was customary to assign to Corporations as well as to private individuals a helmet and supporters as component parts of the armorial bearings

And whether Arms of this complete nature were allotted to day to a corporate body

It was suggested that enquiry on these points should be
