

vote of condolence on the death of his Father, Mr. Arthur Edwin Bosworth.

Sir J. Frederick
Bridge, K. V. O.

The death of Sir John Frederick Bridge, K. V. O., M. A., Mus. Doc. J. R. S. M. "The Father of the Court" on the 18th March last, was reported, and on the proposition of the Master seconded by the Treasurer, a vote of condolence and sympathy with Lady Bridge and also with his brother, Dr. Joseph Bridge of Chester was passed the members upstanding.

The Clerk stated that he had sent a handsome wreath in the name of the Company to Scotland for the funeral of Sir Frederick Bridge there and also that the Master, Wardens, Treasurer and himself had attended the Memorial Service at Westminster Abbey.

Sir Walter Parrall

The death of Sir Walter Parrall, K. C. V. O., M. A., Mus. Doc., J. R. S. M. and Honorary Freeman of the Company, on the 27th March last was reported and on the proposition of the Master seconded by Mr. W. W. Cobbett a sincere vote of condolence and sympathy with Miss Parrall was passed the members upstanding.

Sir Charles
Stanford

The death of Sir Charles Villiers Stanford M. A., Mus. Doc., L. G. D., D. C. L., J. R. S. M. another Honorary Freeman of the Company, on the 29th March last, was reported and on the proposition of the Master seconded by the Treasurer a sincere vote of condolence and sympathy with Lady Stanford and Miss Stanford was passed the members upstanding, and the Master stated that he had attended the Memorial Service at Westminster Abbey on behalf of the Company.

W. P. Fuller Esq.

A Letter was read from Past Master William Palmer Fuller resigning his seat on the Court on account of ill health and such resignation was accepted with deep regret.

Accounts

The new Treasurer, Past Master Arthur J. Hill, F. S. A. presented his

Court to Livery Dinners

W. W. Cobbett Esq. elected for
Chamber Music

Carnegie
Scholarship
Palmer
Scholarship