

Company's Marching Song sung in the Procession but stated that Colonel Balfour was unable to provide a Band from Kneller Hall for the purpose as had been hoped. He explained the necessary arrangements that would have to be made and said that although an emblematical car had been suggested he did not think it was desired by the Committee. He formally moved that the Company take part in the Procession at an expense not exceeding 50 Guineas and that the matter be referred to a Committee to make the necessary arrangements. This was seconded by Mr. Skilbeck and after the Treasurer had made a statement as to the Company's funds the resolution was unanimously adopted.

The matter was referred to a Committee to consist of the Master Warden and Sir Homewood Crawford to make all proper arrangements and the Clerk was instructed to send a circular letter to the members of the Court and the Chaplain to ascertain which of them would take part in the Procession.

Company's Bye Laws and Orders

Mr. Hunter again called the attention of the Court to the Company's Laws and Orders and said he thought the Court ought to seriously consider the mode and government of the Company and appoint a Committee to decide upon the desirability of revising the existing Laws and Orders of the Company so as to make them more applicable to present needs. This was seconded by the Junior Warden and after discussion the matter was put to the vote when the votes for and against the motion were equal. The Master then gave his casting vote in favor of the appointment of a Committee and the Master Warden's Treasurer Sir Homewood Crawford and Mr. Hunter were appointed a Committee to go into the matter accordingly Mr.
