

20th July 1832

Timothy Hyde the late Apprentice of Govett Thompson Citizen and Musician of London by Indentures for 7 years from the 18th July 1825 was this day admitted into the Freedom of this Company by Servitude on the Testimony of his said late Master And duly sworn &c.

Freedom by Serv.

£ 2 0 0

By W^m Glennie

Resides Upper East Smithfield Butcher

24th July 1832

Edward Lover Son of Thomas Charles Lover of Milford Lane Strand in the County of Middlesex

Apprentice to James S. Charles Stagg Citizen and Musician of London by Indentures for seven years in consideration of 4^l Mr. Henry Dixon's perpetual Charity paid by the Drapers Company.

Waterman was this day bound Apprentice to James S. Charles Stagg Citizen and Musician of London by Indentures for seven years in consideration of 4^l Mr. Henry Dixon's perpetual Charity paid by the Drapers Company.

s. d. 18/4

By W^m Glennie