And M^r. John Hurst being ill was excus'd the same.

Mess^{rs}. William Whitley, Richard Gilbert, James Hurst, William Yates, John Evans, Thomas Bingham and John Sanyer severally paid their Livery Fines and were admitted accordingly. — M^r. Isaac Bailey and Peter Ralph were excus'd for one Year.

Thomas Summerfield, who voted as a Liveryman of this Company at the late Election for Chamberlain of this City attended and produced the Copy of his Freedom, but no further Evidence of his Right to Vote.

Sanyer Spence attended according to his Summons and desired to be translated to the Company of Plumbers, as he is demanded by that Body by Virtue of their Act of Common Council.

Ordered that the said M^r. Spence be translated accordingly upon the Payment of £5, only, owing to the particular Circumstances of his Case.

A Motion was made and Question put

"That for two Years, from Midsummer 1776, no Person shall be Summon'd to take up his Livery of this Company, and that if any one shall apply for his Livery, he shall not be admitted thereto, unless he pay his Stewards' Fine at the same time" The same was resolv'd in the Affirmative and order'd accordingly.
