

At a Committee of the Court of Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Musicians held at the Pauls-head Tavern in Cateaton-
 Street on Friday the 24th February 1775.

Present.

Mr Siddall Master

Mr Hardy } Ward.

Mr Clarke }

Mr Jackson

Mr Gatfield

Mr Keating

Mr Stagg

Mr Keating settled with the Beadle and paid him his Fees in full to the 17th of January last . . . . £1<sup>14</sup> 6

Paid Clerk and Beadle for collecting Quarteridge ~
 £21<sup>12</sup> ~ at 4. s. £ . . . . . £4<sup>6</sup> ~

The Committee resolv'd unanimously to re-print the Paragraph, relative to the late Verdict obtained by the Cordwainer's Company for Quarteridge in the Court of King's-Bench, in some other of the Daily Papers.

The Clerk was directed to consult Mr. Alkanes Clerk of the Company of Cordwainers whether it is necessary to have the new Bye-Laws of this Company confirmed.

The Master was requested (attended by the Clerk) to go to the Record Office at the Rolls in Chancery Lane to compare the Copy of the Charter in the Company's Possession with the Original kept in the said Office.

Free p.
 N<sup>o</sup> 52
 Free p.
 N<sup>o</sup> 52
 Jan 26 1775