

School of Music and who shows decided talent and promise although not eligible for the Scholarship we should be glad if some other recognition of his talents could be made by the Company

Both the candidates named above showed considerable ability in sight reading and also a certain amount of power in extemporising All the candidates had some knowledge of the technique of some other instrument or of singing and showed evidence of all round musical training

William H. Cummings

E. Markham Lee

Examiners

J. Frederick Bridge

Thos. Lea Southgate

Representatives of the Court of

The Worshipful Company of

Musicians

Nov: 17th 1905

On the proposition of the Master seconded by Mr. A. C. Hunter it was unanimously resolved that the Examiners Report should be accepted and approved

Wine Committee

The Master reported that the Treasurer had been re-elected on the Wine Committee and informed the Court of the steps taken by the Wine Committee with a view to starting the cellar. He also announced that Mr. F. Harwood Lescher had kindly presented one dozen Cliquot Champagne and one dozen 1881 Port and that he (the Master) and Mr. Crews had each presented £25 towards the initial expenses of the cellar and on the proposition of Mr. Southgate seconded by Mr. Hoblyn a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Donors for their liberality

The Master also stated that it had been arranged that James Brown of 10 Amen Court E.C. the Vicar to the Dean of St. Pauls and who had acted as the Stationers Butler for many years should act as Butler to the Company at at an annual salary appeared In the absence of following Resolution That a sum of £ Company to a Student who has shown signs performance in public English Musician.

This was seconded gratefully accepted and Master Mr. J. Lea So suggestion
The following letter of the Company
Dear Sir
It is a widely fe also to those of the the Members of the This difficulty is largely increased and there will always be a appearing for