The Committee recommend that a Book be provided and an Account entered and kept of the general Receipts and Disbursements of the Company's Cash and to be deposited in the Chest with the other Books.

The Committee having taken the Beadle's Petition into Consideration and examined him as to the Allegations contained therein, are of Opinion, upon the Statement produced to them, that the Profits of the said Beadle are inadequate to his Trouble.

The Committee proceeded to consider the Proposition of Mr. Wadd as to enforcing the Bye Laws, referred to them by the last Court, and adjourned the further Consideration thereof to the next Committee.
