

BANDSMAN WINS THE V.C.

Bandman Thomas Edward Rendle, of the Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry, has been awarded the Victoria Cross for rescuing wounded from the trenches under heavy shell and rifle fire. He is seen at the Exeter Hospital, where he is recovering from his wounds.

BRIDE TRAVELS FROM CANADA TO BE MARRIED.

The bridal carriage and escort pass at the North Lyall.

The bride, looking very happy, with her brother.

The happy pair pass under an archway of swords.

A bride who followed her fiancé from Canada to England was married at Northeyton, Salisbury Plain, yesterday. She was Miss Marion Allan, of Ottawa, but she is now Mrs. Edmiston, wife of Lieutenant Edmiston, of the 16th Alberta Dragoons. The members of the bridegroom's squadron were all present, and everything passed off most successfully, despite the floods.
