

Archdeacon of London, Canon Newbolt, the Sub-Dean, and several other of the Cathedral Clergy and Officials were present and at which special music relating to the Commemoration of S. Cecilia's Day was beautifully rendered

The Archdeacon of London and Canon Newbolt in replying for "The Visitors" gratefully thanked the Master for his beautiful gift to the Cathedral and both stated how much they appreciated the Association of St. Pauls Cathedral with the Company and their wish that the S. Cecilia Commemoration should become a permanent annual Service
