

From Guildhall accompanied by the Right Honorable Richard Clark, Lord Mayor, several of the Aldermen and the City Officers, they proceeded to the Three Cranes and went on Board the Drapers' Barge to Westminster, and landing there, walked in the same Form to the Court of Exchequer, where the Cursitor Baron sat to receive them.

The Lord Mayor making his Obeisance thrice, put on his Hat, and advancing, presented the Sheriffs at the Bar of the Court. Mr Recorder then in a masterly Address, expressive of the Merits of each Sheriff recommended them strongly to the Cursitor Baron for his Approbation; who declared himself highly satisfied with the respectable Choice of the Citizens of London. The rest of the Ceremony over, they returned in the same Order to their Barge and landed at Blackfriars Bridge from whence they walked in the usual State thro' Ludgate Street, St Paul's Church Yard, Cheapside, Poultry &c to Drapers' Hall where a most elegant Dinner was provided, as on the former Day.
