

New Members of Court

M^r Albert Charles Hunter took the Assistant's Oath and was welcomed to the Court by the Master

A letter was read from M^r George John Gadsdon asking to be excused from service as a Member of the Court on the ground of age and the Senior Warden then proposed that the filling up of the remaining vacancy on the Court should be postponed to the October Court. This was seconded by M^r J. P. Jones but on Sir Homewood Crawford pointing out that the Court was not properly constituted until it had its full complement of 13 Assistants in addition to the Master and Wardens, the Senior Warden with the consent of M^r J. P. Jones withdrew his motion

The Master then proposed that M^r Thomas Lea Southgate should be elected an Assistant to the Court. This was seconded by Sir Frederick Bridge and carried unanimously
