and a letter was also read from Dr. E. Markham Lee, the Company's Examiner, urging that Miss Constance Palmer Ellingsford who had been elected to a Palmer Scholarship, should be helped in every way, as she was really an excellent violin player, & Mr. Saxe Wymetham stated that Miss E. Ellingsford had resigned her Scholarship on account of the difficulty of living in London and that another examination was being held to fill her place.

A letter was read from Sir Landon Ronald asking that the Carnegie Scholarship held by Miss Edith R. Corner, and the Palmer Scholarship held by Miss Beatrice Tannen should be extended for another year, and his request was granted.

Palmer Scholarships

P. M. Hill reported that he had been unable to see Mr. Nicholson the Organist of Westminster Abbey, but a letter was read by Mr. Saxe Wymetham from Mr. Nicholson on the subject. The Master stated that he had seen Dr. W. Therson and the Rev. Goughman the Headmaster of St. Paul's School, but that no decision had been come to, and the Clerk was instructed to bring the matter up again for consideration at the next Court.
