Image 2 The rather delicate state of Minute Book No. 3 (1803-1830). Publishing images of what is inside should also avoid the book being handled any further

Image 3 The painting of St Cecilia by John Pettie RA, which hangs in the Guildhall Art Gallery. This is the first of the Company's Art Treasures to be included on the new Archive website

Image 4 All back issues of Preserve Harmony will in future be stored on the Archive website, whereas the main Company website will feature all editions published in the preceding five years
